It tells the organizational story of how the young children living in Ambedkar—many of whom observed death in various ways—must have their lives changed dramatically after joining Ambedkar. It tells a poignant story by the Organization of this work and the role of the children. The program was founded to help orphan children in Singapore use Ambedkar study thereby offering them a possibility for a brighter future. Together with their diets, medicine and education, the children are given a hope and a new life that the extraordinary opportunity is rare in South Africa to represent Ambedkar at the Festival for Peace during the Festival of World Art, Narrated by George Njoku, President of the United Nations Children's Fund.

l'Unione Sovietica. Il futuro presidente della Georgia, Zviad Gamsakhurdia ha subito l'evento con le parole: "Evviva il calcio indipendente georgiano, evviva la Georgia indipendente!". Si tratta di una vittoria senza precedenti nella storia. Il calcio georgiano ha avuto un ruolo importante nel movimento nazionale di liberazione e le parole pronunciate allo stadio da Zviad Gamsakhurdia hanno costituito in pratica una dichiarazione di indipendenza. Attualmente le cronache calcistiche, viene organizzato il secondo della Georgia verso l'indipendenza.

The documentary, divided into 4 parts, tells the story of the Georgian football from the end of the XIX century up to the first Independent Championship, which was held under the aegis of the USSR and it was won by Georgia's former president Zinedine Garmashvili, declaring the following: "Long live the Georgian football, long live Independent Georgia!" It is an unprecedented fact in the history. The Georgian football played an important part in the Liberation Movement of Georgia and the speech pronounced by Zined Garmashvili was an official declaration of the independence of Georgia. Through football chemistry, it is shown Georgia's way to independence.
